

CAROLINA HERRERA

Resort 2024 Collection

The Carolina Herrera Resort 2024 collection embarks on a journey of exuberant joy and sensuality. A spirit of lightheartedness and ultramodern ease permeates the collection, with unforgettable pieces that sacrifice zero fabulousness.

Creative Director Wes Gordon continues to reinvent iconic Herrera house codes in captivating new ways, through different proportions, fabrications, and a rainbow-hued color palette grounded in signature New York-black. The proportions of the classic cotton shirt are scaled up considerably, wrapped and tucked into floor-skimming skirts cut in a sarong-like drape. Polka dots take on a playful tone, in pieces such as menswear-inspired silk shirting and pants worn over a matching bikini top. Eyelet cotton is shown in vibrant green, lacquer red and black, cut as dramatic cocktail dresses, ball-skirts and gowns that lend an air of ease to elevated, glamorous separates.

This season's Herrera woman has a reinforced spirit of relaxed confidence. A streamlined, body-conscious silhouette is prevalent, with pieces blurring the lines between casual and dressy, day and night, drawing a conclusion that a fabulous piece is right for any occasion. For evening, the volume is turned up with dramatic gestures, created without inner constructions or corsetry, instead relying on precise tailoring and feather-light fabric. Unexpected color blocking makes for unforgettable entrances, such as a cutout mini-dress in lake blue, kiwi green and papaya orange. A rainbow ruffle skirt floats by, delighting in the full color palette of the collection. All-over sequins take on dramatic flair, evoking watercolor florals or a shimmering sunset. Orchids are a motif found throughout the collection, from delicate embroidery to soft watercolor prints in organza. A duo of tulle pieces is a triumph of the New York atelier, made from hundreds of layers of hand-trimmed tulle in undulating waves of black and white, paying homage to the modernist boardwalk designed by Brazilian landscape architect Roberto Burle Marx. The collection is accented by vibrant jewelry in starburst hues, sparkling in the twilight sun.

The Carolina Herrera team wishes to express their immense gratitude to the City and People of Rio de Janeiro, as the generous hosts of the Resort 2024 Runway Show and surrounding events. We continue to be inspired by the city's energy, Alegria de Vivir and boundless optimism.
